

www.OilpatchCalendar.com

The comprehensive Oilfield Calendar is the place to get the scoop on all industry-related social events. Boasting a plethora of golf and fishing tournaments, clay shoots, casino nights, conferences, meetings and just about any other event you might want to experience, the Oilfield Calendar can provide you with all of the pertinent information and in some cases the actual registration form.

Oilfield events can be viewed on a daily, weekly, monthly or annual format and there is a sign up location to get updated news and information. Each event on the calendar is accompanied by an email link for additional contact, an ical button to download the event to your calendar, social media sharing links as well as a map and additional information about the event.
